We predict a larger and more united vote of for years. The cry of "No party" from those He is ambitious, meddlesome and mischiev who have fought the Democracy so bitterly eretofore, is properly appreciated.

One of the delegates to the "Union Conve on" offered a resolution to catechise the can natisfactorily answered, to indorselithe ticket—out the wire-pullers amuggled the resolution, and it was not put to the Convention. Another str or delegate was rejected by the committee on Credentials, because he had intimated a simi-lar proposition as to some of the candidates on our stokes, though he had been elected by a de-cided majority of the people of his termship.

The reader will find in this morning's States non amountements of additional Democrati-meetings. The central and local committee n the counties where these meetings are to be teld, are desired to give due notice of and make The No-Party Party Unmasked.

ten or injurious to the country, and form as many new ones as they please. But they have no right to delude the people by pretending to be no party men, and insisting that they are better Union men than others who refuse to unite with their new party.

At the time the late Republican party was dissolved, and the new party formed, the old Union Democratic party was in the field with its platform and its candidates. No issue was taken by the new party with this platform. Its State Convention met on the 5th of September, and adopted for the main, and only substantial plank in its platform, almost word for word, the fifth resolution adopted by the Democratic State Convention of the 7th of August.

That the reader may see at a glance the iden

The fifth resolution adopted by the Union Democratic State Convention of the 7th of August, reads as follows:

August, reads as follows:

Resolved, That in this National emergency the Democracy and other Union men of Ohio, banishing all feelings of passion or resentment, will recollect only their duty to the whole country; that this war should not be waged in any spirit of oppression, nor for any purpose of conquest or subjugation, nor for the purpose of overthrowing or interfering with the rights or established institutions of the States; but to defend and maintain the supremacy of the Constitution and to preserve the Union, with all the dignity, equality and right of the several States unimpaired; and that as soon as these objects mpliab 1, the war ought to cease.

The second and principal resolution adopted by the new No-party State Convention on the 5th of September, is in the words following:

Resolved, That in this National emergency we banks all feeling of mere passion or re-sentment, and will recollect only our duty to the whole country; that this war was not wagthe whole country; that this war was not waged upon our part in any spirit of oppression, nor for any purpose of conquest or subjugation, nor for the purpose of overthrowing or interfering with the rights or established institutions of the States; lat to defend and maintain the supremacy of the Constitution, and to preserve the Union, with all the dignity, equality and rights of the several States unimpaired; and as soon as these objects are accomplished, the war ought to coase.

The 5th of September Convention did not express a word of dissent from any of the views or principles in the resolutions of the Union-Democratic Convention of the 7th of August, then, or in regard to the policy of the Adminisration or the conduct of the war, or the management of our own State affairs, the god-fathers and leaders of the new No-party party, did not and do not differ with the Union-Demperatic party. Did they want a more staubeh Union party? Not a bit of it; for they adopted cisely the same Union resolution as the Union-Democrate had adopted in State Conven-tion a month before. Their object clearly was to get up a party strife about men, to distract nd divide the Union men of the State on the merest and most trifling of all party issues-a strife in which no question of principle is con-of its inpute about dity; for their own setions of its inpute about dity; for their own setions give the lie to their professions of no-partyism.

They are the most scalene and active of party men. They have gone to work in Ohio, formed a new party, and christened it the "Union Party." They have laid down a platform, nominated a State ticket, and are holding meetings and making local county nominations all over the State, thus perfecting a thorough party organization.

Names do not alter things. A political organization with a platform and ticket is as much a party if its adherents call it the Union or People's party, as it is under the name of Democratic or Republican. A religious sect may call itself Christian; but that does not take away its sectarian character. Neither can a political party, by assuming the name of American or Union, disrobe itself of the partisan uniform.

Men have an undoubted right, in a free couptry like ours, to forsake their old political organizations, when convinced that they are rotten or injurious to the country, and form as a many case and the conditions of the Revolution—that they should be done with them? Fremont said—following the precedent set by the State of Naw York in the time of the Revolution—that they should the measurable to the many of the Revolution—that they should the measurable conduct of the many of the Revolution—that they should the many of the Mary of the Revolution—that they should the many of the many of the Revolution—that they should the many of the many of the Revolution—that they should the many of the many of the Revolution—that they should the many of the many of

If there was any Etate of the Union where the military exigencles required the most stringent measures, it was Missouri, and when General Fremont's proclamation appeared, every body exclaimed simultaneously that Missouri was safe. Knowing the exigency, he acted upon it, and he acted with a promptitude and boldness which we have not always found in the conduct of the war. That it was an effective blow was made evident by the universal howls of the rebels. They felt that the bolt had been shot in their most vulnerable point, and they writhed in painful apprehension. The and they writhed in painful apprehension. The ffect was everywhere excellent. It is always wise to let well enough alone remont's act, rightly understood, was doing no bury, not even in Kentucky. It was doing auch good, because it was convincing all citizens, both loyal and disloyal, that the Government was in earnest.

If there are any other grounds for dissatisfaction with General Fremont—and we hear that there are—he should be rebuked or superseded. If he administers his Department in a way which is displeasing to the higher authorities, a proper method has been taken to correct the abuse. Postmaster General Blair and General Meiga have gone to St. Louis to inquire into the wrongs which, after due report, may be rectified. But these are questions independent of the principles involved in Fremont's proclamation. That we hold to have been right, whatever his general offences may be.

Reported Release of Mayor Berret We find in the Evening Star of last night th following paragraph in reference to the Mayo of this city, who was arrested three weeks ago on suspicion of disloyalty to the Government and conveyed to Fort Latayette, in the harbor o New York:

We learn that yesterday evening's mail car ried to New York an order from the Depart-ment of State directing the release of James G. Berret, late Mayor of the Federal Metropo-lis, from his present confinement in Fort Lafay-ette. This offer is on condition that he takes tile, from his present confinement in Fort Lafayette. This offer is on condition that he takes the oath of allegiance to the United States against any and all enemies whatsoover, and to also resigns the office of Mayor."

In giving place to the foregoing statement we think it proper to express our belief that there must be some misapprehension as to the terms or conditions on which the Government is alleged to have offered to release Mr. Berretfrom the detention in which he is now held—
We take it for granted that the Government did not proceed in his arrest until it believed to dence sufficient to justify a strong conviction, if not assurance, of his treasonable conduct.—
If, on examination, it is stand that this evidence is of a nature so little positive that it can be rebutted by an oath of allegiance, and if in virtue of some solemn declaration he is so far purged of all injurious suspicions as to be deamed worthy of enlargement, it appears clear to our mind that in being restored to his civil to our mind that in being restored to his civil liberty be has a right, both legal and moral, to enter anew upon the official functions from which he was legally suspended only because of the disability that resulted from his imprisonment. If the Government regards him as a loyal citizen, rightfully entitled to his liberty, it would indeed be singular to affix as a condition of that personal liberty such a deprivation of official prerogatives as would still imply a suspicion of his guilt. It would be impossible for Mr. Berret to be imposent as a citizen but guilty as a Mayor. Under these circumstances, we repeat the expression of our belief that the Government has not addressed to Mr. Berret any such terms of release as those above indi-

OcaoLA, O., Sept. 8, 1861 Ma Beer.—I am informed that the so-called People's Convention which met at Bucyrus on Saturday, August 31st, have honored(7) me with an appointment as delegate to the "Union" Senatorial Convention to meet at Upper Sandusky.

Whilst I profess to be a Union man, allow

Respectfully, W. BATES.

Entron or Fours-I desire to say to my Democratic friends that the appointment made by the so-called "Union" Convention of Crawford county, which made me a delegate to the State Convention at Columbus, was done without my knowledge or concent. The same is the case in trying to send me to Upper Sanduaky to the Senatorial Convention.

I would further say that in the good old Democratic party I have found and do still find the true Union sentiment, hence I shall vote the straight Democratic Union ticket for State, district and county officers.

By giving this a place in your paper you will much oblige,

Yours, respectfully, GEORGE HEIBY.

[From the Cincinnati Enquirer.] errible Accident on the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad Last Night-A Train Loaded with Troops Precipitated through a Bridge.

Last evening dispatches were received in city of a terrible accident that occurred to extra train bound East from St. Louis, havi on board a portion of the Nineteenth Illino on board a portion of the Nineteenth Illinois, Colonel Turchin. The regiment was on two special trains, the first detachment on ten cars, and the second battalion on eight cars. The first train crossed bridge No. 48, three miles west of Huron, where the accident took place, all right, and had arrived at Mitchell, when the second train came on to the bridge and the bridge gave way, precipitating six cars into Beaver Creek, a depth of twenty feet. Huron is 140 miles from Cincinnati, and 52 miles from Seymour.
